PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE PAYING THE FILING FEE

- The registrant is responsible for searching the business name availability before filing an FBN Statement.
- When completing the form, print clearly in BLACK or BLUE INK with NO WHITEOUT. Strikeouts are acceptable if accompanied with initials.
- Our office cannot provide advice regarding a name that can or cannot be used, except as provided in Business and Professions Code sections 17910.5(a) and (c).
- Our office cannot provide assistance in determining how a business is to be conducted.
- After the FBN Statement has been filed with the County Clerk, the registrant is required to publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation within 45 days from the filing date. The notice must appear once a week for four consecutive weeks. Please give the newspaper adequate time to prepare the notice. We will provide you a list of newspapers if you file in person; the list is available online if you file by mail.
- After the FBN Statement has been filed, no changes can be made to the filing. Any changes or corrections will require a new filing and filing fee. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- After the FBN Statement has been filed, we cannot give refunds.

The clerk will review the final instructions with you before you leave the office.
